

Storyboard - Grading Rubric

1 pt.

3 pts.

5 pts.

The plot lacks any preplanned concept.	The artist used pieces of the brainstorming packet to develop a plot idea. The idea could have been developed more.	The artist used the brainstorming packet to fully develop a strong plot idea. The plot is interesting and shows the student did not go with the first ideas and was able push their creativity to a deeper level.
The plot format is incorrect.	The projects shows evidence that the artist attempted to followed the format for plot development. Scene 1 - First impressions Scene 2 - Define struggle Scene 3 - Change in character Scene 4 - Resolution	The projects shows evidence that the artist followed the format for plot development. Scene 1 - First impressions Scene 2 - Define struggle Scene 3 - Change in character Scene 4 - Resolution
The frames were quickly thrown together in Photoshop.	The artist was sloppy with how elements were selected, blended and layered together.	The projects shows evidence of advanced Photoshop skills. The artist was very careful with how elements were selected, blended and layered together. There is evidence that artist applied all their skills they developed this semester.
The frames do not convey the intended message.	The project struggled to convey a message. The icons are missing in at least two frames.	The project has evidence of very thoughtful compositions, creative ways to convey a message and looks art looks beautiful. All four scenes have icons that help the viewer understand the plot.
A lot of time was wasted during this project.	The artist used 70% of their time in class to create the best project they were able to.	The artist used ALL of their time in class to create the best project they were able to.