

Figure in Action and Proportion Rubric

1 pt.	5 pts.	10 pts.
The composition has 2 figures. The theme/action is unclear.	The composition has 4 figures. The activity/action theme is mostly the same.	The composition has 6 figures that are all involved in the same activity/action/theme. For example, dancing, kung fu, yoga, skateboarding, etc.
The proportions are wrong. There is no attempt to demonstrate the understanding from the learning activities.	The figure have some errors in the proportions. There is evidence that the artist was a little concerned with creating convincing human form based on the learning activities.	All the figure have very accurate proportions. There is evidence that the artist was very concerned with creating convincing human form based on the learning activities.
The poses are boring and do not express action.	The artist played it safe with poses that lack a dynamic angle. The artist did not attempt to foreshorten arms and legs. The 6 figures fill the space 50% or less of the composition.	The artist went beyond expectations to put their figures in very interesting poses. The artist was not afraid to foreshorten arms and legs. The 6 figures fill the space 75% or more and their are not tiny figures.
The project was rushed and lacks pride and craftsmanship.	The artist applied some effort to make an average piece. The paper has smudges and/or wrinkles. The craftsmanship is average.	The artist applied a lot of effort to make the best piece that they could. The paper is free of smudges and wrinkles. The craftsmanship is above average.

Total Points