

Surreal Landscape - Rubric

1 pt.

3 pts.

5 pts.

The landscape is made of a single image.

The landscape is missing a foreground, middle ground or background. Some of the edges have not been feathered. The artist tried to blend the pieces together.

The landscape has a foreground, middle ground and a background. All the edges have been feathered. The different elements have been blended perfectly together.

The selected pieces are sloppy.

The project has four different elements collaged together.

The project has a minimum of six different elements collaged together.

Some elements have been selected with a feathered edge. There is white or unwanted parts left behind.

The elements have been selected with a feathered edge and don't have any white or unwanted parts left behind.

The project has no image adjustments or filters.

The project has evidence that one image adjustments or filter have been used.

The project has evidence that multiple image adjustments or filters have been used.

The project lacks understanding of Surrealism.

The artist did not push their ideas beyond the first idea. The project does not demonstrate an understanding of what inspired the Surrealist artists.

The project has evidence that artist was very thoughtful with their idea. The idea is unique and demonstrates an understanding Surrealism.

The artist applied little effort to make their project.

The artist applied some effort to make their Project.

The artist applied a lot of effort to make the best project they could.