

Inspiration - Frottage Tribal Masks

Inspire - (verb) To infuse. To affect (to impact or change). To realize what is possible. To learn from other's experiences.

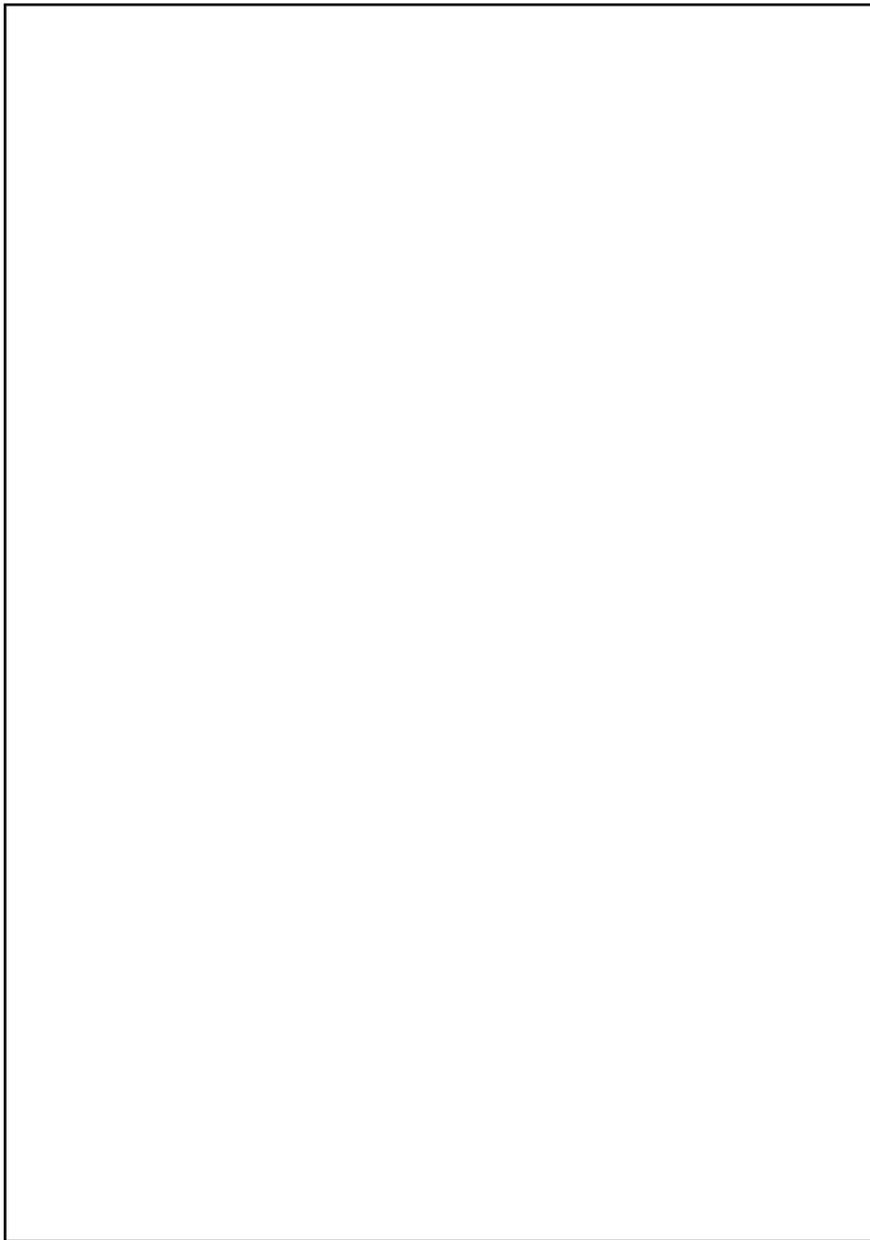

Directions -

Use the mask on the left as your inspiration.

In the box on the right, draw a variation of the mask. Variation is about changing a few small details. Begin by changing the size, or position of the elements. Or, Change the emotion of the mask.

Do not copy the ideas on the left, but use them as a starting point of how you could make a new idea.

BE BRAVE. If you want to totally rearrange a major part of the mask, you may be as creative as you like, but also try to keep some resemblance of the original idea.

Inspiration - Frottage Tribal Masks

Inspire - (verb) To infuse. To affect (to impact or change). To realize what is possible. To learn from other's experiences.

Directions -

Use the mask on the left as your inspiration.

In the box on the right, draw a variation of the mask. Variation is about changing a few small details. Begin by changing the size, or position of the elements. Or, Change the emotion of the mask.

Do not copy the ideas on the left, but use them as a starting point of how you could make a new idea.

BE BRAVE. If you want to totally rearrange a major part of the mask, you may be as creative as you like, but also try to keep some resemblance of the original idea.

Inspiration - Frottage Tribal Masks

Inspire - (verb) To infuse. To affect (to impact or change). To realize what is possible. To learn from other's experiences.

A large, empty rectangular box intended for drawing a variation of the mask shown on the left.

Directions -

Use the mask on the left as your inspiration.

In the box on the right, draw a variation of the mask. Variation is about changing a few small details. Begin by changing the size, or position of the elements. Or, Change the emotion of the mask.

Do not copy the ideas on the left, but use them as a starting point of how you could make a new idea.

BE BRAVE. If you want to totally rearrange a major part of the mask, you may be as creative as you like, but also try to keep some resemblance of the original idea.

Inspiration - Frottage Tribal Masks

Inspire - (verb) To infuse. To affect (to impact or change). To realize what is possible. To learn from other's experiences.

Directions -

Use the mask on the left as your inspiration.

In the box on the right, draw a variation of the mask. Variation is about changing a few small details. Begin by changing the size, or position of the elements. Or, Change the emotion of the mask.

Do not copy the ideas on the left, but use them as a starting point of how you could make a new idea.

BE BRAVE. If you want to totally rearrange a major part of the mask, you may be as creative as you like, but also try to keep some resemblance of the original idea.