

Project 1

Wo(Man) and Machine - Rubric

1 pt.

3 pt.

5 pt.

The project has a single cut out picture.

The picture was quickly cut out.

The project has evidence that the artist collage one or two layers of images to create a an idea that was not fully developed.

The collaged elements quickly cut out. There pieced of unwanted information.

The project has evidence that the artist was able to collage multiple layers of images to create a strong idea.

The collaged elements are VERY thoughtfully cut out. The edges are clean with no extra unwanted information.

The collage has only 1 pieces glued to the paper.

Each of the three collages has 2 -3 pieces collaged together.

Each of the three collages has 4 or more pieces collaged together. The artist was able to draw in extra pieces if they needed to.

The project lacked creativity. The pieces were quickly put together to just be done with the project.

The project has evidence that the artist was able to create some combination of human and machine parts. The idea looks like there was no attempt to push the ideas during the creative process.

If the elements were drawn, the artist could have applied more value, line quality or texture.

The project has evidence that the artist was able to create a unique combination of human and machine parts. The parts are VERY well planned out.

If the elements were drawn, the artist applied their best effort. The drawing has value, line quality and texture.

The project looks sloppy and rushed.

The project has evidence of elements not fulfilled glued, The paper has of smudges, there are wrinkles on the paper.

The project has a weak feeling of Unity. Something should have been added or taken away.

The project has evidence of superior craftsmanship. All the elements are fulfilled glued, The paper is free of smudges, there are no wrinkles.

The project has a strong feeling of Unity.

The project is missing all the titles.

One of the collages is missing a title. The title is struggling to be creative or imaginative. The title is written sloppy or hard to read.

All three collages have a title. The title is creative and imaginative. The title is written legibly on the composition.

Total 25 pts