

Radial Balance_ Rubric

1 pts.	3 pts.	5 pts.
There is no boarder.	The boarder is drawn 80% accurately. The lines are not clean or not very dark.	The boarder is drawn accurately. The lines are clean and dark.
There is evidence that the artist created did not use a template to create a design.	There is evidence that the artist created a design using their name inside the template, but did not utilize all the available space.	There is evidence that the artist was able to create a design using their name to fill template completely or in an organized manner.
There is evidence that the artist was unable to trace their design. The design is disorganized and lacks a pattern.	There is evidence that the artist was able to trace or transfer their design, but did not achieve a radially balanced design. The design is disorganized and lacks a pattern.	There is evidence that the artist was able to trace, transer, flip and rotate their design to create a radially balanced design. The design is organized and creates a pattern.
The design lacks a finishing technique such as color, line quality, pattern, etc.	There is evidence that the artist was 80% able to finish their design by applying a technique such as color, line quality, pattern, etc.	There is evidence that the artist was able to finish their design by applying a technique such as color, line quality, pattern, etc.
There is evidence that the artist applied NO effort to be successful.	There is evidence that the artist applied THE MINIMUM required effort to be successful.	There is evidence that the artist applied A LOT of effort to be successful.